

Bouge

Isabelle Duthoit	stimme, klarinette
Luc Ex	bassgitarre
Johannes Bauer	posaune

It is a chamber music, wild and extreme. wild by the melodies, sound, screams, rhythms, breaths mingling, unravel: made and unmade by the game that leads the three musicians. Impacts, breaks of these materials draw shapes, structures. triggered by surprise by the commitment in the moment, the building forms a colourful musical architecture, driven by a skeleton strange but alive. The energy of these three bodies in motion is wild, each gesture is the anchor of sound. One is the other constantly. There are the extreme in the dynamics experienced with certainty and passion in the music range of original instrumentation. All this gives reflections, joyous alchemy, a unique color, an amazing sound for this trio.
